THE COUNTY PAPER. OREGON, MO.

JEFF. DAVIS' new book has made him more enemies in the South than friencs in the North. His unjust criticism of the bravest men of the Confed erate army are calling out some severe eastigations. Silence would have been better for Jefferson.

THERE is a chance for a lively row in the Democrtic party of Mississippi, which may break the old thing up. The organization seems to be divided into two wings, led by Lamar and Barksdale respectively. The Barksdale men triumphed in the Convention on Friday last, and the Lamar men are on the warpath, and ready for an alliance with the Republicaus. If the Republicans act wisely, they will make terms with Lamar and go into the canvass for the purpose of breaking the solidity of the Mississippi Democracy.

THE platform of the Bourbon party of Virginia declares in favor of "a maintenance of the credit of the State." The candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor who stand upon that, are Major Daniel, who for seven years has advocated the payment of the national debt in greenbacks, and James Barbour, who, as editor of the Richmond Enquirer, had advocated the repudiation of the State debt. This is a very convenient arrangement. The platform will please those who are in rioge! favor of paying the State debt, and the candidates will please those who are not. As the old Democrat in Maine said of the prohibition act, both Daniel and Barbour are "in favor of the platform, but ag'in its enforcement "

ONE CENT SUBSCRIPTION. On thursday the Cincinnati Commercial announced that Capt. C. A. Cook, of Brownsville, Ohio, who slapped Geoge Morrison's mouth for saying he hoped the President would die of his wound, had been fined $10 and costs for assault. The fine and costs amounted to $32. and the Commercial proposed that the sum be raised by the citizens of Cincinnati, no citizen being allowed to give more than a cent. The response was If so, use Leis' Dandellon Tonic. lively. On the following morning the Commercial announced that before the the sum of $32, and by night there was a handsome surplus which it announced " will be devoted to a gold-headed cane, or gold watch, or, perhaps, to a farm," adding: "Captain Cook is the hero of the day. It was a slap that went to the right spot. It was the right thing at the right time and place."

PUBLISHING LISTS OF WEDDING

Happily, in almost every other part of the country but this, the shoddy and vulgar custom of parading with every news-paper notice of a wedding, i complete list of all the presents received, from the "elegant and expensive cake of perfumed toilet soap, from Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGluggerson," to nently is Dr. Dromgoole's English the "beautiful tin dish-pan, from the FEMALE BITTERS. bride's mother," or the "ten dollar treasury note, from the father," has as a vulgarity of the worst sort, is

To receive presents at all, except from relatives and intimate friends, has always been a matter of questionable you to try it Price 10 cts. 50 cts. and taste; but to scatter invitations broad-cast, with that object, and then to pub-lish the result in this brazen and ridiculous manner is abominable. But it would be a great mistake to suppose that all the lists published are from persons lacking in true delicacy and refinement. People of this kind, on the occasion of a wedding, find themselves in a position of great embarrassment. They are made recipients of numerous tokens of good will, which, not to acknowledge in the customary manner, might seem churlish and impolite. And so, in obedience to public curiosity and a bad fashion, violence is done to their better feelings; and Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Gluggerson have the felicity of seeing the "elegant and expensive cake of perfamed toilet soap" and their own names in the paper, and of knowing that all their five thousand envious friends will see them also. For, of course, these lists are always read: so is any other personal item with which the public

But, as remarked in the beginning, an improved sentiment is observable. and we imagine that in the approaching marrying season there will be a very healthy disinclination towards furnishing lsts of presents to newspapers enough at least to define the social status of those who do furnish lists.

WHAT WOMEN SAY AT WEDDINGS The following remarks have mostly been said time after time at all our "tony" weddings, and will be said again and again on every such occasion:

Pretty, isn't she? Who made her dress? Is it Surah silk or satin? Is her veil real lace? She's as white as the wall.! Wonder how much he's worth? Did he give those diamonds? He's scared to death! Isn't she the cooll piece? That train's a horrid shape! Isn't her mother a dowdy? Aren't the bridesmaids homely? That's a handsome usher! Hasn't she a cute little hand?

Wonder what number her gloves are They say her shoes are fives! If his hair isnt parted in the middle! Isn't he handsome? He's as homely as a hedge-hog!

He looks like a circus clown! No, he's like a dancing-master! Good enough for her, anyway, She was a ways a stuck-up thing. She'll be worse than ever, now! She jilted Sam Somebody, didn't she? No, he never asked her. He's left town, anyway. There, the ceremony has begun Isn't he awkward? White as his collar! Why don't they hurry up? Did she say she would "obey?" What a precious fool! There, they are married! Doesn't she look happy? Pity if she wouldn't? (Wish I was in her place!) What a handsome couple! She was always a sweet little thing. How gracefully she walks! Dear me, what airs she puts on! Wouldn't be in her place for a farm! I'll bet those jewels were hired. Hope they'll be happy.

Wonder what en earth she married him for? For his money, of course! Well, she's off her father's hands at Doesn't she cling tightly to him, though?

She has a mortgage on him now. They say she's awful smart. Too smart for him by a jugfull! There! they are getting into the car-

That magnificent dress will be squashed! The way she does look at him! I bet she worships him!

Worship be hanged! she's only making believe! It's kind o' mee to get married, isn't

No, it's a dreadful bore. Wasn't it a stupid wedding? What dowdy dresses! I'll never go to another! I'm just suffocated! Tired to death. Glad it's over! Oh, dear!-Golden Era.

Ague Cure

Is a purely vegetable bitter and powerful tonic, and is warranted a speedy and certain cure for Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, and all malarial disorders. In miasmatic districts, the rapid pulse, coated tongue, thirst, lassitude, loss of appetite, pain in the back and loins, and coldness of the spine and extremities, are only premouitions of severer symptoms, which terminate in the ague paroxysm, succeeded by high fever and profuse perspiration.

It is a startling fact, that culnine, arseand profuse perspiration.

It is a startling fact, that quinine, arsenic and other poisonous minerals, form the basis of most of the "Fever and Ague Preparations," "Specifics," "Syrups," and "Tonics," in the market. The preparations made from these mineral poisons, although they are palatable, and may break the chill, do not cure, but leave the malarial and their own drug poison in the system, producing quinism, dizziness, ringing in the cars, headache, vertigo, and other disorders more formidable than the disease they were intended to cure. Aven's Ague Come thoroughly cradicates these noxious poisons from the system, and always cures the severest cases. It contains no quinine, mineral, or any thing contains no quinine, mineral, or any thing that could injure the most delicate pa-tient; and its crowning excellence, above its certainty to cure, is that it leaves the system as free from disease as before the
